PREAMBLE

We, the People of Eastern Equatoria State,

Grateful to Almighty God for giving the people of the Sudan the wisdom and courage to reach a peace agreement, which ended a long and tragic conflict;

Recalling our long and heroic struggle for justice, freedom, equality and dignity in the Sudan;

Remembering and inspired by the selfless sacrifices of our martyrs, heroes and heroines;

Appreciative of the role of the Sudan People's Liberation Movement and the Sudan People's Liberation Army, The Government of Sudan and the Inter-Governmental Authority on Development in bringing about a lasting peace in our Country;

Committed to the Comprehensive Peace Agreement of January 9, 2005, the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan, 2005, and the Interim National Constitution of the Republic of the Sudan, 2005;

Dedicated to a genuine national healing process and the building of trust and confidence in our society through inter-ethnic and communal dialogue;

Determined to lay the foundation for a united, peaceful and prosperous society, based on justice, equality, respect for human rights and the rule of law;

Further committed to establishing a decentralised, democratic, and multi-party system of governance in which power shall be peacefully transferred and to upholding values of human dignity and equal rights and duties of men and women;

Mindful of the fact that the aim of government is to facilitate and secure the existence of good governance, to protect it, and to furnish the individuals who compose it with the power of enjoying their basic rights, fundamental freedoms and blessings of life in safety and peace;

Cognizant of our duty and responsibility to safeguard and ensure the true exercise of our inalienable right to actively participate in self-determination through a fair and an internationally monitored referendum; and

Conscious of the need to manage our natural resources sustainably and efficiently for the benefit of the present and future generations and to reduce famine, hunger, promote adult education and public awareness and attain the Millennium Development Goals; which are to–

- (a) Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger;
- (b) Achieve universal primary education;
- (c) Promote gender equality and empower women;
- (d) Reduce child mortality;
- (e) Improve maternal health;
- (f) Combat HIV / AIDS , malaria and other diseases;
- (g) Ensure environmental sustainability; and
- (h) Develop a global partnership for development.

Do hereby adopt and promulgate this Interim Constitution of Eastern Equatoria State, 2008, as the supreme law by which the State shall be governed during the Interim Period, and undertake to abide by, respect and defend it.

PART ONE

THE STATE AND THE CONSTITUTION

CHAPTER I

THE CONSTITUTION AND TERRITORY OF THE STATE

Territory of Eastern Equatoria State

1. (1) Subject to the provisions of National Legislation referred to in Article 177(2) of the Interim National Constitution, the territory of Eastern Equatoria State comprises all lands and areas that were under the administration of the former districts of Kapoeta and Torit of former Equatoria Province that now constitute Eastern Equatoria State, as their boundaries stood on 1st January, 1956.
- (2) The State is governed on the basis of decentralisation; it consists of counties, as shall be established by law, and is an all embracing homeland for its people. It is a multi-ethnic, multi-cultural, multi-lingual, and multi-religious entity, where such diversities peacefully co-exist.
- (3) The State is founded on justice, equality and respect for human dignity and advancement of human rights and fundamental freedoms; it is governed on the basis of a decentralised and democratic system in accordance with this Constitution, the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan and the Interim National Constitution.

Sovereign Authority of the People of the State

2. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 2 of the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan and Article 2 of the Interim National Constitution, sovereign authority in the State is vested in its people and shall be exercised through their democratic and representative institutions established by this Constitution and elected by them in regular, free and fair elections.

- (2) The authority of the government at all levels in State shall derive from the people and shall be exercised in accordance with their will, this Constitution and the law.

Supremacy of the Constitution

3. (1) Without prejudice to provisions of Article 3 of the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan and Article 3 of the Interim National Constitution, this Constitution shall be the supreme law of the State and shall have binding force on all organs and agencies of government and persons throughout the State.
- (2) This Constitution and all laws of the State shall comply with the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan, the Interim National Constitution and the Comprehensive Peace Agreement.

Defence of the Constitution

4. (1) No person or group of persons shall take or retain control of the Government of the State except in accordance with this Constitution and the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan.
- (2) Any person or group of persons who attempts to suspend, overthrow or abrogate this Constitution, commits treason. All citizens of the State shall have the right and duty to resist any person or group of persons seeking to overthrow this Constitution, if no other remedy is available.
- (3) All levels of government in the State shall promote public awareness of this Constitution by translating it into the national languages in the State and disseminating it as widely as possible. They shall provide for the teaching of this Constitution in all public and private educational and training institutions, as well as in the armed and other regular forces, by regularly transmitting and publishing programmes in respect thereof through the media and press.

Sources of Legislation

5. The sources of legislation in the State shall be–
- (a) the Interim National Constitution;
 - (b) the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan;
 - (c) this Constitution;
 - (d) customs, values and traditions of the people of the State;
 - (e) popular consensus of the people of the State; and
 - (f) any other sources

Languages

6. (1) All indigenous languages of Eastern Equatoria State are national languages and shall be respected, developed and promoted.
- (2) English and Arabic shall be the official working languages at all levels of the government of the State as well as languages of instruction for higher education.
- (3) There shall be no discrimination against the use of either English or Arabic at any level of government in the State or any stage of education.
- (4) English, as a major language in the State, and Arabic, shall be the official working languages of the government of the State, and the languages of instruction for higher education.

- (5) In addition to English and Arabic, the State legislature may adopt any other national language as an additional official working language or medium of instruction in schools at its level.
- (6) The Government of the State shall promote the development of a sign language for the benefit of people with special needs.

Symbols and Public Holidays

7. The flag, emblem, seal, medals, festivals, public holidays and commemorations of the State shall be specified by law.

Religion in the State

8. (1) In the State, religion and State shall be separate.
- (2) All religions shall be treated equally and no religion shall be declared the official religion of the State; religion or religious beliefs shall not be used for divisive purposes.

CHAPTER II

SOUTHERN SUDAN RIGHT TO SELF-DETERMINATION

Affirmation of the Right to Self-Determination

9. (1) The people of Eastern Equatoria State, as Southern Sudanese, shall participate in exercise of the right to self-determination, together with all the Southern Sudanese, through a referendum to determine their future status in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the ICSS.

- (2) The people of Eastern Equatoria State, as Southern Sudanese, who has attained the age of eighteen, shall have the right to vote in the referendum in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the ICSS.
- (3) For purposes of the referendum in sub-Article (1) above and without prejudice to Article 46 (1) herein, a Southern Sudanese in the State is--
 - (a) any person whose parent or grandparent is or was a member of any of the indigenous communities existing in Southern Sudan before or on 1st of January , 1956; or whose ancestry can be traced through agnatic or male line to any one of the ethnic communities of Eastern Equatoria State in Southern Sudan; or
 - (b) any person who has been permanently residing or whose mother and/or father or any grandparent have been permanently residing in Southern Sudan as of 1st of January, 1956.

The Referendum on Self-Determination

- (3) The conduct of business regulations of the Assembly shall provide for the effective participation of the Leader of the Opposition in the Assembly.

Committees of the Assembly

69. (1) Eastern Equatoria State Legislative Assembly shall have standing specialised committees and may establish ad hoc committees for the efficient discharge of its functions.
- (2) The functions of the standing specialised and ad hoc committees shall be determined by conduct of business regulations of the Assembly.

Conduct of Business Regulations of the Assembly

70. (1) Eastern Equatoria State Legislative Assembly, on the initiative of its Speaker, shall make conduct of business regulations for the conduct of its business.

- (2) The Speaker shall ensure that the conduct of business regulations of the Assembly are respected and enforced.

Quorum

- 71 (1) The quorum for ordinary sittings of the Assembly shall be more than half of the members; but the conduct of business regulations may provide for a reduced quorum. A reduced quorum may not apply to—
- (a) the final presentation of bills;
 - (b) recommendations concerning the boundaries, name and capital of the State.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided for in this Constitution, the decisions of the Assembly shall be by a majority of votes of the members present and voting. If the votes are equally divided, the Speaker or any person presiding shall have no casting vote and the motion shall be considered lost.

Publicity of Sittings of the Assembly

72. The sittings of the Assembly shall be open to the public; its proceedings shall be published and may also be broadcast. However, the Assembly may decide according to its conduct of business regulations that certain deliberations take place in camera.

Passing Assembly Resolutions

73. Resolutions of the Assembly shall, whenever possible, be taken by unanimity or consensus. Alternatively, resolutions shall be passed by simple majority of those present and voting, save in cases where this Constitution provides otherwise.

Privileges of Members of the Assembly

74. Members of the Assembly shall freely and responsibly express their opinions, subject only to the provisions of the conduct of business regulations. No legal proceedings shall be initiated against any member, nor shall he or she be held accountable before any court of law only by reason of views or opinions that he or she might have expressed in the course of performing his or her duties.

Address by the Governor of the State

75. The Governor of Eastern Equatoria State may, personally or by a message, address the State Legislative Assembly. The Assembly shall accord priority to such request over any other business. The Governor may also request the opinion of the Assembly on any subject.

Address by the Deputy Governor and Statements by Ministers

76. (1) The Deputy Governor of Eastern Equatoria the State may request to address the Assembly. The Assembly shall provide an opportunity for hearing such an address as promptly as possible.
- (2) A Minister may request to deliver a statement before the Assembly and the Assembly shall give due consideration to such a request.

Questions addressed to Ministers by Assembly Members

77. Members of the Assembly may, within the competence of the Assembly and subject to its regulations, address questions to a Minister on any subject relating to his or her duties; the Minister shall provide the Assembly with a prompt reply.

Request of Statements

78. The Assembly may request a Minister of the Government of Eastern Equatoria State to deliver before it a statement on any matter of public concern.

General Summons

79. (1) The Assembly or any of its committees may summon any public official or any person within the State, other than the Governor and the Deputy Governor of the State, to testify or give opinion before it.
- (2) Inquiry on any matter that falls within the direct responsibility of the Government of Eastern Equatoria State may only be made after notifying the Governor of the State.
- (3) Any person who refuses to appear before the Assembly or any of its committees or refuses to produce any documents as required under sub-Article (1) above commits an offence punishable by law.

Tabling of Bills

80. (1) The Governor or Eastern Equatoria State Council of Ministers may cause a bill to be presented by a Minister before the Assembly.
- (2) A member of the Assembly may table a private bill before the Assembly on a matter that falls within its competence.
- (3) A private member bill shall not be tabled before the Assembly save after having been referred to the appropriate committee to determine whether it involves an important issue of public interest.
- (4) A committee of the Assembly may present before the Assembly a bill on any issue within its competence.

Procedures for Presentation and Consideration of Bills

81. (1) Bills presented to the Assembly shall be submitted for the first reading by being cited by title. The bill shall then be submitted for a second reading for general deliberation and approval in principle. Should the bill be passed in the second reading, there shall be a third reading for deliberation in detail and introduction of, and decision upon, any amendment. The bill shall then be submitted in its final form for the final reading, at which stage the text of the bill shall not be subject to further discussion and shall be passed section by section and then passed as a whole.

- (2) After the first reading, the Speaker shall refer the bill to the appropriate committee of the Assembly, which shall make a general evaluation report for the purpose of the second reading. The committee shall also present a report on the amendments that the Committee might or might not have endorsed in the third reading for the decision of the Assembly; the Speaker may also refer the bill once again to the appropriate committee to prepare a report in a final draft in preparation for the final reading.
- (3) The Speaker of the Assembly or the appropriate committee may seek expert opinion on the viability and rationale of the bill; an interested body may also be invited to present views on the impact and propriety of the bill.
- (4) The Assembly may, by a special resolution, decide on any bill as a general committee or by summary proceedings.

Assent of the Governor of the State

82. (1) Any bill approved by the Assembly shall not become law unless the Governor of the State assents to it and signs it into law. If the Governor withholds assent for thirty days without giving reasons, the bill shall be deemed to have been so signed.

- (2) Should the Governor of the State withhold assent to the bill and give reasons within the aforementioned thirty days, the bill shall be re-introduced to the Assembly to consider the observations of the Governor.
- (3) The bill shall become law if the Assembly again passes it by a two-thirds majority of all its members, and the assent of the Governor of the State shall not be required for that bill to come into force.

Provisional Orders

84. (1) Should Eastern Equatoria State Legislative Assembly not be in session, the Governor of the State may, on an urgent matter, issue a provisional order having the force of law; however, such provisional order shall be submitted to the Assembly as soon as it is convened. Where the Assembly ratifies the provisional order as it is, it shall be promulgated as law, but where the same is rejected by the Assembly or where the Assembly session ends without it being ratified, the provisional order shall lapse with no retrospective effect. A bill on the same subject matter may again be re-introduced before the Assembly and be considered under the normal procedure for consideration of bills.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-Article (1) above, the Governor of the State shall not make any provisional order on matters affecting the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, the Bill of Rights, the decentralised system of government, general elections, annual allocation of resources and financial revenue, penal legislations or alteration of administrative boundaries of the Counties of the State.
 - (3) Any law which was repealed or amended pursuant to a provisional order that later lapsed, shall revive into force as it was, starting from the date when the provisional order lapsed.

- (4) The Assembly may delegate to the Governor of the State the power to approve internal and external borrowing of money on the sole credit worthiness of the State within the macro-economic framework while the Assembly is not in session; however, such borrowing agreements shall be subject to subsequent approval by the Assembly and shall be deposited before the Assembly as soon as it is convened.

Bills Pertaining to Allocation of Resources and Revenues

85. (1) The Governor of Eastern Equatoria State shall cause to be presented to the Assembly, before the beginning of the financial year, a bill for the allocation of State resources and revenue in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution. The Assembly shall convene to approve, modify or reject that bill.
- (2) The financial year shall be twelve months beginning from 1st of January , and ending on 31st December each year.

General Budget Proposal, Estimates and Related Bills

86. (1) The Governor of Eastern Equatoria State shall cause to be presented to the State Legislative Assembly before the beginning of the financial year, the bill on the general budget of the State, including a general evaluation of the economic and financial performance and situation, detailed estimates of proposed revenue and expenditure for the forthcoming year compared to those of the previous financial year, a statement of the general budget, any reserve funds, transfers thereto or allocations there from, explanations of any special budgets or financial estimates, policies or measures to be taken by the State Government in the financial and economic affairs within the framework of the general budget.

- (2) The Governor of Eastern Equatoria State shall cause to be submitted to the Assembly proposals of total expenditure entered into the budget as an appropriation bill and proposals for taxes, fees and other levies as well as borrowing, investment or saving bonds as financial bills.
- (3) The Assembly shall discuss, and may amend, reject or adopt the general budget bill chapter by chapter including schedules, and it shall thereafter pass the appropriation bill in its totality. Where the bill is passed, detailed estimates as specified in the general budget shall not be exceeded save by a supplementary law. Surplus funds over revenue estimates and funds out of the legal reserve shall not also be spent save by a supplementary appropriation law.
- (4) After the passing of the budget, no funds shall be transferred from one chapter to another, nor shall any money be spent on an item that is not provided for in the budget without the approval of the Assembly.
- (5) In the event that the Assembly fails to pass the budget bill within a period of forty-five days after its presentation to the Assembly, the Governor of the State shall issue a decree on the budget for that year, and such budget shall be deemed to have been passed by the Assembly in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.

Private Member Financial Bill

87. (1) No member of the Assembly, outside the context of the deliberations of the draft general budget, shall introduce any financial bill or move any amendment to a bill having the object or effect of abolishing, imposing or increasing any tax or imposing any charge upon the public revenue or reserves, save with the prior consent of the State Council of Ministers.

- (2) The Minister in charge of Finance in the State, on the authority of the Council of Ministers, shall issue a certificate that a proposed bill or an amendment has such object or effect and such certification shall be conclusive.
- (3) A bill or an amendment shall not be deemed to have such object or effect by reason that it includes provisions for the imposition of fines or other pecuniary penalties or the payment of fees for services rendered.

Provisional and Supplementary Financial Measures

88. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 84 (2) herein, the Governor of Eastern Equatoria State may, in the public interest, make an order having the force of law, providing that the imposition of any tax, or fee or the amendment thereof shall come into force, pending submission of a bill requiring the same to the Assembly. When that financial bill is adopted or rejected, the force of the order shall cease without retrospective effect in relation to rejection or amendment of the Bill.
- (2) Where the procedure of adopting the general budget and the appropriation bill is delayed beyond the beginning of the financial year, expenditure shall continue, pending adoption of the general budget, in accordance with the estimates approved for the previous year, as if the same has been appropriated by law for the new year.
- (3) Whenever new circumstances occur or a matter of public concern proves not to have been satisfactorily addressed by the general budget, the Governor of the State may, during the financial year, cause to be submitted to the Assembly, a financial bill, a supplementary appropriation or an allocation from the reserve funds, to which the same provisions set out in respect of the general budget bill shall apply.

- (4) Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 86 (3) herein, the following expenditures shall be paid out of the consolidated reserve funds—
- (a) emoluments of the Governor of the State;
 - (b) expenses of the State House;
 - (c) emoluments of the Judiciary of the State;
 - (d) State Government contractual financial obligations;
 - (e) repayment of the State Government external debts under any loan agreements;
 - (f) payment of any money the State Government is required to pay under a court order arising out of any litigation or as a result of an arbitration award or any other settlement having similar legal effect; and
 - (g) any other expenses as shall be regulated by law.

Final Accounts

89. The Governor of Eastern Equatoria State shall cause to be presented to the State Assembly during the six months following the end of the financial year, the final accounts for all revenue and expenditure as are set forth in that year, as well as expenditure withdrawn from the reserve funds. The Southern Sudan Audit Chamber shall audit the accounts as required by Article 195 of the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan and present the audit report to the State Assembly.

Delegation of Powers of Subsidiary Legislation

90. The Assembly may, by law, delegate to the Governor of the State, the Council of Ministers or any public body, the power to make any subsidiary regulations, rules, orders or any other subsidiary instrument having the force of law, provided that such subsidiary legislation shall be tabled before the Assembly and be subject to adoption or amendment by a resolution of the Assembly in accordance with the provisions of its regulations.

Validity of the Proceedings of the Assembly

91. No court or any other authority shall call into question the validity of any proceedings of the Eastern Equatoria State Legislative Assembly on the basis of a violation of its conduct of business regulations. A certificate duly signed by the Speaker shall be deemed to be conclusive evidence of the validity of the proceedings.

PART FIFTEEN

INTERIM AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Coming into Force

173. (1) This Constitution shall be cited as the Interim Constitution of Eastern Equatoria State, 2008; its English and Arabic versions are equally official and authentic. In case of any contradiction between the English and Arabic texts, the English text shall be authoritative as English was the language of the drafting of this Constitution. Any reference to the masculine gender in the Arabic text also denotes the feminine gender.
- (2) Pursuant to the provisions of Article 26 (1) (a) of the Interim National Constitution and upon the adoption of this Constitution by the State Assembly, this Constitution shall be presented to the Ministry of Legal Affairs and Constitutional Development, Government of Southern Sudan to assess its compatibility with the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan and the Interim National Constitution.
- (3) This Constitution shall come into force on the date of signature by the Governor of the State.

Amendment of the Constitution

174. This Constitution shall not be amended unless the proposed amendment is approved by two-thirds of all members of the State Assembly and only after introduction of the draft amendment at least two months prior to the deliberations. Any amendment must be consistent with the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, the Interim National Constitution and the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan.

Incorporation of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement in this Constitution

175. The Comprehensive Peace Agreement is deemed to have been duly incorporated in this Constitution; any provisions of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, which are not expressly incorporated herein, shall be considered as part of this Constitution.

Miscellaneous Provisions

176. (1) The Constitution of Eastern Equatoria State, 2006, is hereby repealed, provided that all actions taken or orders issued in accordance with the provisions of the repealed Constitution shall remain in force until they are amended or repealed in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.
- (2) This Constitution derives its authority from the will of the people of the State, the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan and the Interim National Constitution.
- (3) For the purposes of this Constitution and the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, the Interim Period commenced on July 9, 2005 and any measures taken or institutions established by the Governor of the State pursuant to the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan and the Interim National Constitution prior to the adoption of this Constitution, shall be deemed to have been taken or established by virtue of this Constitution.
- (4) All current laws in the State shall remain in force and all judicial and civil servants shall continue to perform their functions, unless new actions are taken in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.
- (5) This Constitution shall govern the Interim Period in the State, subject to any amendment or review in accordance with Article 174 herein.

- (6) All the interim provisions contained in the various parts and chapters of this Constitution shall cease to have effect after the holding of the general elections stipulated under Article 169 of this Constitution.
- (7) Should the outcome of the referendum on self-determination confirm unity, the current system of governance established under this Constitution shall remain in force and all the institutions established under it shall continue to function in accordance with the provisions thereof until a permanent State Constitution is promulgated.
- (8) If the outcome of the referendum on self-determination favours secession of Southern Sudan, this Constitution shall remain in force as the Constitution of the State, and the parts, chapters, articles, sub-articles and schedules of this Constitution that provide for national institutions, representation, rights and obligations shall be deemed to have been duly repealed.
